COURT GIVES FIRST ROUND TO DEMPSEY

Pugilist Wins Temporary Fight to Bar Former Wife as Government Witness in the Army Draft Evasion Case

Chief Contentions of U. S. in Trial Based on Charge by Maxine Cates Dempsey, and Victory for Fighter Forecast

By FRANK G. MENKE.

Jack Dempsey, facing Uncle Sam in the legal ring of the federal courts in San Francisco this afternoon, scored a brilliant victory against the prosecution in the case charging him with evading the draft in the world war.

Federal Judge M. T. Dooley, after hearing an afternoon argument between counsel for the government and counsel for Dempsey, declared that unless additional evidence was produced by the government he would have to rule that Maxine Cates Dempsey was the legal wife of the heavyweight champion to all legal intents and purposes and as such her testimony could not be used against her husband.

He stated that following the noon recess he would hear further arguments on the point.

RULING FOLLOWS QUERY ON DIVORCE

Maxine Cates Dempsey was called to the stand shortly before 11 o'clock. The first question asked was her name. She replied by giving five names by which she is known: Maxine Cates Dempsey, Maxine Cates Stewart, Maxine Glasoff and Edna Case.

The next question precipitated the legal battle over the admission of her testimony. She was asked to identify Dempsey's signature. Before she could answer counsel for Dempsey began his battle to rule out her testimony.

RULING TEMPORARY: NEW FACTS WAITED

Should Judge Dooley rule in his preliminary ruling, the case is expected to come to a quick end. Maxine Dempsey was expected to be the final witness for the government. On her testimony the indictment was based. If it is ruled out the prosecution is expected to rest. About twenty witnesses will then be called for Dempsey.

Judge Dooley ruled out evidence by the prosecution intended to show that the former wife had not obtained a final decree of divorce from George Grasshoff of Salt Lake when she married Dempsey. He said, however, that he would consider further evidence by the prosecution as to the admissibility of her testimony.

CRAMPION LOSER

Judge Dooley earlier had ruled the first legal point against Dempsey after sensational testimony was introduced by Miss Ella Goodrich, government witness. Miss Goodrich testified that in May, 1917, after Dempsey's marriage, Maxine Dempsey was a woman of the night life in Pasco, Wash., and later went to Spokane, St. Louis and Cairo, Ills. Mrs. Dempsey supported herself by this means, Miss Goodrich testified.

Mrs. J. B. Hume for Johnson "to Bitter End" Writer Told

CHICAGO, June 9.—(United Press)—Mrs. J. B. Hume of Berkeley, California, told today how it felt to be the first woman ever to appear on the platform of a national convention in an official capacity. Mrs. Hume yesterday served as a member of the committee that escorted Temporary Chairman Lodge to the rostrum.

"I wasn't very much frightened," she said, "and I wouldn't mind doing it again at all."

"Who are you for for president next to Johnson?" Mrs. Hume was asked.

"I'm a bitter-ender," she replied.

13 Die, 32 Hurt When New York Trains Crash

Victims Killed and Maimed While They Were Asleep; Pullmans Telescoped

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., June 9.—Thirteen persons are known to be dead and thirty-two injured in the wreck on the New York Central railroad at Harding's Crossing, three miles west of here today.

A preliminary investigation by railroad officials has failed to disclose the cause of the wreck. An express train crashed into the rear of a passenger train.

Two of the injured are probably fatally hurt. 24 are seriously hurt and six but slightly injured.

ENGINEER OF EXPRESS KILLED OUTRIGHT

Marvin Doyle of Albany, N. Y., engineer of the express, was killed outright. Two other men, two women, a child and a baby in arms, all as yet unidentified, were killed. Seventeen injured are in ill condition.

were treated at the scene of the wreck. The injured are all from New York and nearby points.

Wrecking crews from Albany were on the scene quickly and began the work of clearing the wreckage. By 8 o'clock railroad officials declared they had accounted for all the passengers and gave up the search of the wreckage for other bodies.

ENGINEER IGNORED THREE SIGNALS TO HALT TRAIN

NEW YORK, June 9.—New York Central officials here said that Martin Doyle, engineer of the express that crashed into a passenger train near Schenectady today, had run by three signals in meeting death at his post on his fiftieth birthday.

He disregarded a distant signal, 13 miles from the standing train, then passed a home signal, three-quarters of a mile from the passenger train, and finally ignored the flagman of the passenger train who had gone back with a red lantern.

DEMANDS OF LABOR GO TO COMMITTEE

Compulsory Arbitration and Kansas Anti-Strike Laws Must Not Be Included in the Platform, Says Gompers

Restriction of Immigration and Reduction of Living Costs, as Well as Repeal of War Espionage Laws, Asked

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, June 9.—Maintenance of the right to strike and to conduct all negotiations with employers without interference by the Federal Government was demanded by labor before the Republican national convention today. This was insisted on in spite of an understanding that the industrial plank prepared by Governor Allen of Kansas for the elimination of strikes and compulsory arbitration would not be pressed.

Labor, through Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, also demanded the restriction of the flow of immigration from abroad to the ability of America to absorb and Americanize it, and the stopping of such immigration absolutely when there is any unemployment.

Another demand was made for the reduction at once and effectively of the high cost of living and the curbing of profiteering. Gompers headed a special committee from the American Federation of Labor convention now in session at Montreal.

In its protest against restriction of the action of labor in its right to strike, the committee made the following statement:

LEGISLATION WHICH PROPOSES TO MAKE STRIKES UNLAWFUL OR TO COMPEL THE WORK EARNERS TO SUBMIT THEIR GRIEVANCES TO ARBITRATION TO COURTS

"Removal of all effects of the invasion of the rights of the wage earner.

"When enforced it makes for industrial serfdom or slavery.

"It holds that the government should supply information, assistance and counsel, but it should not attempt by the force of its own power to stifle or destroy voluntary relations and policies of mutuality between employers and employees.

Other demands emphasized in the bill of rights presented include:

"Right of labor to organize and have collective bargaining through its own representatives; freedom from 'unwarrantable' issuance of writs of injunction and the right of trial by jury in contempt cases outside the presence of the courts.

"Removal of all restrictions on the right of federal employees to organize and to enjoy the same rights and privileges of other working men; opposition to the labor provisions of the Cummins-Ech law; exclusion of convict labor from interstate commerce; opposition to child labor; opposition to intervention in Mexico and curbing the supreme court from overriding the rights of Congress were also included.

HIGH LIVING COSTS MUST BE CONSIDERED

The statement on the high cost of living follows:

"We demand that effective steps be taken immediately to relieve the people of the burden imposed by the excessive cost of living, to eradicate permanently the underlying evils, recognizing fully that no other issue is of deeper interest to the masses of the American people.

"As a comprehensive program of such relief and remedy we set forth these demands:

"Co-operation should be encouraged as an effective means of curbing of profiteering. To stimulate development of co-operatives here a reduction of 25 per cent on present rates charged for unloading vessels. Freedom from labor troubles is guaranteed in contracts offered. Waterfront terminals are operating on the open shop basis since the recent strike of longshoremen.

Party Chiefs See No Adjournment Before Week End

COLISEUM, CHICAGO, June 9.—"Saturday noon, at the earliest," is the estimate of leaders, when asked when adjournment may come.

The delay is more attributable to platform difficulties than to uncertainty over a nomination.

And until the platform is built there will be no one named to stand on it. The fact that more than half of the delegates are uninitiated has added to the list of nominating speeches. There are three or more for some and in a few instances six or more speeches.

Enrico Caruso's Home Is Robbed; Loses $500,000

Safe, Containing Precious Jewels, Taken From House, Looted

EAST HAMPTON, N. Y., June 9.—Enrico Caruso today is frantically striving to console himself, his wife and the police all at the same time in recovering more than $500,000 worth of diamonds, pearls and other valuables stolen last night by burglars, who entered his estates here.

Robberies to Caruso are no new experience. He has been the victim of many, especially in the land of his nativity, sunny Italy, but last night's was on a more elaborate scale.

Signora Caruso was the first to discover burglars in the house. She was aroused by the ringing of the alarm while she was in the parlor sewing room. Instantly with the first peal of the alarm she rushed to the wall space of the steel safe.

SAFE FOUND OPEN ON LAWN

The safe was gone. A few minutes later the safe, stripped of its contents, was found on the Caruso lawn, about 200 yards from the house.

A roar and a cloud of dust, made by a fast moving auto, containing the safe, was seen heading for the frozen woman and her servants. Only a meager description of the machine and its occupants could be given the police.

Besides a diamond necklace and a pearl necklace, valued at between $75,000 and $100,000 each, there were a handful of diamond rings, earrings, diamond hairpins, flexible diamond bracelets and watches, and numerous other smaller pieces.

BRIDAL GIFT AMONG LOOT

Held more precious than all the rest of the loot by Caruso's wife was the bridal gift of the famous tenor, which she said to have cost more than $100,000.

Detectives held the belief that the thieves were familiar with the neighborhood and the operations of the Caruso household. No ladder was found outside the house, and the thieves may have climbed in an open window. The safe, probably was dropped to the work shed beneath.

More than a year ago a "soft committee" of Florence, Italy, called upon Caruso and "commandeered" his automobile and thirty barrels of wine.

Cyclone Kills Six, Hurts Forty

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 9.—Six persons were killed, forty or more injured and heavy property damage resulted from a severe wind and electrical storm which swept Northern Minnesota and parts of Eastern North Dakota last night, according to reports received here early today.

Meager reports indicate the storm struck hardest in the vicinity of Fox Lake, Minn., and parts of Northern Minnesota and parts of Eastern North Dakota last night, according to reports received here early today.

Mrs. C. W. Wilkie, an unidentified boy were killed at Fox Lake, Minn., and a farmer was killed in her cottage when it collapsed in the storm. She is the mother of the National Editorial Association.

Four cars of a Northern Pacific passenger train west bound from Brainerd, were blown from the tracks near Fox Lake and about thirty persons injured, several seriously. The heaviest damage and deaths were reported from various sections.

BIG THREE STILL HOLD THEIR VOTES

No Signs Yet Visible of Who Will Be Winner; Forces of Johnson Confident; Storm May Break at Any Minute

League of Nations Plank in Platform Expected to Be the Test of Strength; Delegates Drifting Along Aimlessly

By JOSEPH R. KNOWLAND. Publisher of The TRIBUNE.

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, June 9.—The Republican national convention has been in session two days and no test vote has been taken that gives any indication of the nominee to be selected. In past conventions test votes have been taken on convention organization that disclosed the forces in control, but in this unusual gathering no candidate up to this moment has decided to precipitate a fight that would demand a show-down of strength.

There has been no utterance on the floor that has called forth an expression from the delegates or from the crowded galleries that carries with it the force of a platform.

Already there are rumblings indicative of an approaching storm. The League of Nations plank is likely to be the test of strength. The convention will split. From present indications it will be Thursday before the resolutions committee will be ready to report.

JOHNSON TO WIN OR LOSE ON LEAGUE ISSUE

Senator Johnson has been given assurances from certain quarters that he will win or lose on the league issue.

but there are forces at work demanding a declaration totally at variance with the Johnsonites. If the pro-league capture the committee the "fireworks" will begin and prolonged and spirited debate ensue. When the vote is taken the Johnson cause will finally triumph or go down to defeat. The keynote speech of Senator Lodge was so couched as to permit of almost any interpretation.

The speech has been taken up by the local papers and is causing wide comment. What effect it will have is problematical.

I expressed apprehension in my dispatch of yesterday over the speech of Senator Borah at the Johnson mass meeting attacking Wood and Lowden, fearing it would antagonize delegates friendly to these two.

Delegates Sing, Sizzle; Permanent Organization Made in Short Session

By GEORGE R. HOLMES. International News Service Staff Correspondent

COLISEUM, CHICAGO, June 9.—The battle over the league of nations raging behind closed doors in an uptown hotel, forced an adjournment of the Republican national convention today in less than an hour after it met.

The resolutions committee, Senator Lodge informed the convention, has so far been unable to agree, that it can only report progress and that there was little further business to come before the convention today.

The reports of the other committees—credentials, rules and organization—had previously been adopted.

Features of today's short convention session were Chauncey M. Depew's sarcastic reference to President Wilson's Paris peace negotiations, and the appearance of the first woman to address the G. O. P. from the platform of its quadrennial convention.

Report of Credentials Body Is Adopted in Very Brief Session

By Associated Press (Exclusive Leased Wire to The TRIBUNE)

CHICAGO, June 9.—The Republican national convention was in session only an hour today and devoted itself purely to routine preliminaries.

The temporary organization was made permanent, the report of the credentials committee was adopted without dissent and the convention next heard the report from the committee on permanent organization. It was presented by Governor Morrow of Kentucky, its chairman. As agreed upon, it recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent.

The platform committee was not ready to report and only sent word that it was making progress.

The next session will be at 11 o'clock.

During the first hour before the opening of the convention, hall was given over to the usual preliminary matters.

The "best way to show my gratitude to the convention for its action," said Senator Lodge, "will be to tell you that I am on your side."

Paul Howland of Cleveland, Ohio, presented the report of the committee on credentials. The committee recommended that the convention be made permanent.

BUILDERS OF PLATFORM IN TIGHT PLACE

Delegates Anxious to Have the League of Nations Plank Settled in Committee and Thus Avoid Friction in the Open

Soldier Bonus, Refunding of War Debts, Protection for Negroes in South, Taxation and Other Subjects Heard

CHICAGO, June 9.—The League of Nations plank was under fire today, twenty-four hours before the Republican platform was to be presented to the national convention.

Senator Borah of Idaho, head of the subcommittee maintained that in the end the Indiana plank, with some modifications, would get the support of all Republican delegates.

McCormick of Illinois thought there would have to be material modifications to pacify the irreconcilables. The mild reservation group also wanted changes made, but in the opposite direction.

Booster of the predictions of an agreement, however, was a feeling in many quarters that the league question must not be permitted to reach the convention floor, where everyone realized it might set off fireworks of a destructive nature.

QUESTIONS OF TAXATION MUST BE AMONG THE RESOLUTIONS SUBMITTED BY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IF IT WOULD RETAIN THE CONFIDENCE OF INDUSTRY, JAMES A. EMERY, GENERAL COUNSEL FOR THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS, SAID TODAY IN LAYING BEFORE IT ORGANIZATION'S CLAIMS FOR ATTENTION.

Questions of taxation must be among the resolutions submitted by the Republican party if it would retain the confidence of industry, James A. Emery, general counsel for the National Association of Manufacturers, said today in laying before it organization's claims for attention.

The manufacturers asked that the nation's war debt be funded into long term securities and creation of the sinking fund be postponed until industry has had an opportunity to recover from the strain of war conditions.

Demands for action favors, "reasonable government assistance to those serving in the military forces," but objected strongly to any form of a soldier bonus, Emery said.

The question of a bonus was linked inseparably with taxation, he argued, and therefore should be handled carefully to avoid further additions to the "already too heavy tax burden."

Waterways are the solution of the transportation problem now and for the next generation to come, according to Senator Borah of Idaho, chairman of the Mississippi Valley Improvement Association, and Charles A. Snyder of the Atlantic Waterways, both of whom appeared before the committee asking that a plank be inserted in the platform covering these problems.

A beer and light wine plank was advocated by Mrs. Joseph Oberst, representing the American Federation of Labor, who said the workers generally demand freedom to use such beverages.

Jane Addams, representing the Women's International League for Peace and Disarmament, presented four planks.

1. Restoration of constitutional guarantees of free speech, free press and free assembly.

2. Universal physical training of boys and girls in the public schools.

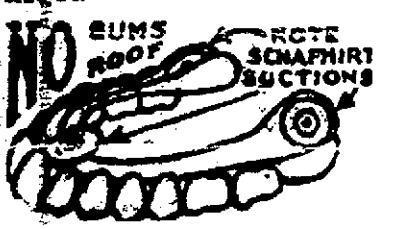

3. That the United States take the lead in bringing about world disarmament.

ROBTS BURGLAR WITH REVOLVER

Awakened early this morning by the glint of a burglar's flashlight on his face, M. J. Taylor, 1319 Ninety-eighth avenue, leaped from his bed and found himself confronted by a large masked man.

Taylor hesitated and the burglar turned the rays of his flashlight full in the face of the aroused householder. The burglar drew a revolver, but evidently concluded not to use it.

"Don't tackle me or I'll have to shoot you and I don't want to do that," said the burglar. He backed toward the door of the bedroom.

Taylor followed him down the hall. Reaching the stairs, the burglar turned and fled. He dived through an open window in the lower portion of the house. A subsequent examination showed that he had "jumped" the window to obtain entrance.

Taylor secured a pistol and sent two shots after the fleeing burglar as he leaped to the fence. It is thought that the shot took effect, as the only light on the scene came from a corner lamp some distance away.

The police were notified and a search of the neighborhood was dispatched to make a search for the burglar, but no trace of him could be found. Nothing was taken from the house.

MISSING LAWYER'S BOND FORFEITED

The city of Oakland was enriched to the extent of $2000 this morning when William L. Claiborne, prominent Berkeley attorney, living at 2310 Haste street, Berkeley, for the second time failed to appear before Judge Mortimer Smith to face the grand jury's charge pending against him, and Judge Smith peremptorily ordered that bail be forfeited.

Claiborne was arrested several weeks ago when the complaint charging grand larceny was sworn to by Robert Whitehead, bond broker and financier. The case involved the alleged misappropriation of money in a automobile deal between Whitehead and Claiborne.

Bail was fixed at $2000 bonds and Claiborne at once provided the bond and obtained his liberty. His bondsman is J. N. Jacobson, a retired liverman living in Berkeley, and J. Nunes, a dealer in automobile accessories.

Claiborne's case came up for hearing ten days ago, but he did not appear. His attorney, George Price, asked for a continuance, which was granted by Judge Smith, with the warning that bail would be forfeited if Claiborne did not appear at the next calling of the case.

Both Claiborne's counsel and family profess ignorance concerning his whereabouts.

LEAGUE DECLARED MENACE TO IRISH

MONTREAL, June 9.—Irish sympathizers in the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor today declared war on the league of nations ratification program recommended by the executive council. They asserted they were against any covenant "that binds the American people by solemn obligation to the league of nations, which is a menace to the territorial integrity of Great Britain."

The Irish delegates, headed by Dan MacKillop of Los Angeles, twice attempted to fight the executive council's proposal that the federation call upon congress to ratify the league without reservation.

"Ireland's hope for a republic will go glimmering if the league is ratified," said MacKillop. "Irishmen can never approve a covenant that denies the small nations of the world the right of self-determination."

The convention was stirred today by a resolution presented by the national committee for organizing Irish and steel workers, which called for an address to President Wilson on the subject of "free press, free speech and free assembly."

The national federation of federal employees today asked the convention to call upon congress to "reclassify the civil service and adopt a wage scale commensurate with the skill, training and responsibility involved in the work performed, and with just relation to the increased cost of living."

The federal employees' organization also asked that congress be urged to provide "liberally the study of social and industrial problems and technical research in all branches of science touching the welfare of the nation's people."

This convention will be before it a report on profiteering which says that shoes selling for $4 are now sold for $12, while the increase in labor cost has been only forty cents. Practically the only persons proceeded against under the Lever act were miners seeking relief from the high cost of living, the report says.

Late last night Cabrell determined to padlock the door which connected the two apartments. Souza smashed the door open again with an axe, the police claim.

Cabrell was arrested. Mrs. Cabrell went into hysterics, as she was also placed in the wagon, which made the run to the city jail via the hospital. Cabrell is charged with making threats against life.

FAMILIES FIGHT: ONE MAN JAILED

One man in jail facing a serious charge, his wife in the hospital, and neighbors in hysterics was the result of an inter-family dispute last night at 8503 Hillside avenue. Trouble had been pending several weeks between the families of John Souza and Jeanne Cabrell, the police say.

Late last night Cabrell determined to padlock the door which connected the two apartments. Souza smashed the door open again with an axe, the police claim.

Cabrell was arrested. Mrs. Cabrell went into hysterics, as she was also placed in the wagon, which made the run to the city jail via the hospital. Cabrell is charged with making threats against life.

Distributing System of Water Company Is Sought

Acquisition by the Eastbay municipalities of the distributing system of the Eastbay Water Company, as the first step towards the solution of the water problem, was embodied in a program outlined this morning at a meeting of the committee of mayors and councilmen of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and Richmond in the offices of Mayor John L. Davis.

With the program practically decided upon, and a recommendation drafted for submission tomorrow afternoon at the joint conference of the Water Commission of the East-bay cities and the four councils, the plan was blocked by sudden opposition on the part of Mayor J. N. Long of Richmond, who refused to vote for the purchase of the system without action at the same time including the acquisition of a water supply.

As a result of the hitch in the program, an adjourned meeting of the committee will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, preceding the joint conference called for an hour later. At the other members of the committee will attempt to change Mayor Long's vote by supplying him with data to show that the plan proposed is feasible.

The program offered by Mayor Louis Jettett of Berkeley and approved by the other members of the committee with the exception of Mayor Long, embraced a series of progressive steps toward the final solution of the water question—the acquisition by each municipality of its portion of the East Bay Water Company distributing system, an advisory vote from the people on the utility district question, the amendment of the present utility act in 1915 to fit the needs of the Eastbay communities, and lastly the acquisition of local and outside water supplies.

The committee had decided upon the program and agreed to submit the plan as their recommendation to the joint conference tomorrow when Mayor Long declared that he would not vote for the proposal. The delegation was unanimous in supporting the stand of Mayor John L. Davis against any proceedings under the present public utility act, which the Mayor declared was not fitted to the needs of the Eastbay section.

Under the plan tentatively agreed on, each community would hold a bond election to purchase outright its portion of the water company's distributing system and pay the company's water at wholesale, thus "getting into the water business" as the first step in the water campaign. Steps then would be taken to amend the utility act so that a district could later be formed, after an affirmative expression from the people of the different communities, and local sources and an additional outside supply secured.

CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE Further details of the program included the centralization of the water campaign in the hands of the mayor and one councilman from each of the citizens involved, and the maintenance of the Water Commission of the Eastbay cities as an advisory organ.

If the plan outlined this morning is followed out, prior to the purchase proceedings each city will secure figures on the purchase price from the water company and the figures will be checked up by the different city engineers.

During the conference it was declared by Mayor John L. Davis, in answer to the objection of Mayor Long that the plan would not result in any material increase in the amount of available water, but in lower water rates.

Business Men Called to Oakland Boosting Session

Invitations have been sent out to all business men of Oakland requesting their presence at the T. & D. theater between noon and 2 o'clock next Monday. The meeting is strictly invitational and 3500 boxes of lunch will be on hand to be distributed among those who attend. In order that business men who are in the utility district question, the amendment of the present utility act in 1915 to fit the needs of the Eastbay communities, and lastly the acquisition of local and outside water supplies.

Although no announcement has been made as yet as to the nature of the meeting, it is understood that it will have to do with the industrial growth of the city and will point toward the making of Oakland the business center of this section of the state. The announcement of the purpose of the meeting will be made later.

AUTHOR KILLS 'DEATH TRAP' BILL

The ordinance presented last week in the city council by Commissioner Bacon, making "death traps" unlawful, and providing a punishment for violators, was today rejected by a resolution passed by the City Council this morning, and a recommendation given that the system be generally adopted.

The system provides a detailed and complete plan for greater facility in the prevention of automobile thefts and the recovery of stolen cars, providing as its chief feature the issuance of a duplicate for the license of each license issued. This tax must be held by the owner or driver of the car at all times, and displayed when purchases of gas and oil are made.

The council this morning pledged $1500 to the Merchants' Exchange for this year's observance of July Fourth. The request for the appropriation was accompanied by a statement that the celebration this year will cost $3000, one-half of which is sought from the city and the balance from the county treasury.

Bids were called for this morning for the supplying of light, heat and power to the city for the coming fiscal year 1926-27.

Powerful Workers Line Up for Hiram

CHICAGO, June 9.—(United Press).—Hiram Johnson's inner camp is placing much hope for victory on the quiet but powerful activities of many prospective officeholders and politicians among the delegates and folks at home who would be carried to the objectives through the nomination of a winning Republican candidate. It was learned today.

exclaimed, "There will be no bolt from this convention." Alameda county was honored when Mrs. Hume was selected with two other delegates. Governor Herrick of Ohio and Chauncey Depew, to escort the temporary chairman to the platform.

The California delegation is well placed. Its seats extend to the front row. To the right is an aisle separating the delegates from space occupied by spectators. Seated on the left are the North Dakota and Pennsylvania delegations, separated by another aisle. Dr. Benj. L. Wheeler is an onlooker at the convention. L. L. Spear also dropped in for a few minutes.

Today the betting here and in New York favors Johnson and yet practically all the old leaders and big state delegations are hostile. Bryan declares that the Californian will not be nominated, but as a prophet the great commoner is somewhat discredited. To be entirely frank let me say that I don't know what is going to happen and the more I get around and discuss the situation with leaders and delegates the more puzzled I become. The wisest ones are shaking their heads. It is all a guess.

Whisk party will be given Thursday night at Odd Fellows hall, Alameda, by the Bi-County Association of Royal Neighbors.

Henry Frank will discuss the "Law of Heredity and Environment" tomorrow night in Ebell clubhouse before the Oakland Club of Applied Psychology.

"British Rule in India" will be discussed by Surendra Karm, a native of India, before the Business and Professional Women's Club, at luncheon tomorrow at the Puritas Cafe.

Ignored Wife Is Granted Divorce

Mrs. Jessie M. Boye always had been led to believe by her husband, Otto H. Boye, San Francisco photographer, since their marriage 25 years ago, that he was a woman hater, she testified before Superior Judge T. W. Harris, who granted her an interlocutory decree of divorce on the ground of cruelty. It was not until she discovered that he was meeting another woman clandestinely, she said, that she revised her belief.

An agreement was made between the parties as to the payment of alimony and the custody of the one minor child, a daughter, aged 15. Mrs. Boye, who has resided in Alameda county since the separation several years ago, said that for five years before their separation her husband refused to treat her as a wife, ignored her, showed an aversion for her and treated her with coldness and contempt.

The financial agreement provides that the husband shall pay his wife $80 a month.

MRS. STEVENS SAYS SHE HAD HER DOUBTS

After Ten Years Of Suffering She Was Beginning To Think She Would Never Be Well — Tanlac Again Proves Merit.

"The way Tanlac has restored my health is simply wonderful and I am glad of the opportunity to tell every body about this grand medicine," said Mrs. C. F. Stevens of 3229 South Harvard boulevard, Los Angeles, Cal. "For at least ten years my stomach has troubled me and for several years I have been in very bad health. I suffered terribly with indigestion and even the lightest of foods caused gas to form on my stomach. This was at times heart and cause such a shortness of breath I could hardly stand it. I became so weak and nervous that the least little noise would upset me so I couldn't get a good night's rest. I just had that tired worn-out feeling all the time. I lost interest in everything and for days at a time was unable to do my housework. "I just didn't know what to try next. I had tried so many different treatments and medicines and had spent so much money without getting relief that I had my doubts about ever finding anything to help me. But I saw about Tanlac in the papers and after reading of several cases that seemed to fit my own trouble decided to try Tanlac myself. I am glad I did, for I am now feeling just like a new woman. I started improving with the first few doses and now I can eat anything I want without even a sign of indigestion or trouble with my stomach. I sleep like a little child every night and feel fine all the time. That worn-out feeling has left me and I have been built up until my housework, which for years has been a drag, is now a pleasure. Tanlac has certainly been a blessing to me and I will always praise and recommend it to everyone." Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company. 1200 Broadway — Advertisement.

ELECTION UPSETS GERMAN POLITICS

BERLIN, June 9. — Unofficial reports from Sunday's election show that the Majority Socialists, Centrists and Democrats, who, by combining, dominated the last session of the German parliament, will be in the minority in the new Reichstag. These parties, according to indications, have 222 seats, while the seats of other parties total 238. Including the deputies from plebiscite districts who retain their national assembly mandates, the new Reichstag will have 460 members. Latest figures show that 25,740,000 votes were polled during the elections.

Indications are that the seats will be apportioned as follows: Majority Socialists, 119; Centrists, 67; Democrats, 45; Christian Democrats, 21; German Nationalists, 61; German People's Party, 61; Independent Socialists, 8; Communists, 2; Bavarian Peasants' party, 4; Communists, 2.

Three Berlin editors have been elected. They are Otto Hoetzsch of the Kreuz Zeitung, Reinhold Muller of the Pan Germanic and anti-semitic Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, both members of the German National party and Heinrich Rippler of the Tagliche Rundschau, a candidate of the German People's party.

Dr. Wilhelm Mayer, German charge d'affaires at Paris, has been given a mandate by the Bavarian People's party, which comprises the disaffected clericals of Bavaria. Alexander Schlicke, minister of labor, was the only cabinet member who failed to get a seat in the new Reichstag.

Former Chancellor Hermann Mueller has been asked by President Ebert to form a new cabinet as the result of the anti-government vote in the general election and he is engaged on that task today. If Herr Mueller is unsuccessful it is reported that Herr Traubner, a Centrist leader, will be asked to form a ministry.

'STATE NEWS'

TUDOR, June 9. — Carl Arnold, who recently moved here from Colusa, reported to Sheriff C. J. McCoy of Yuba county that his 18-year-old wife, Ivy Arnold, had disappeared in Marysville Saturday. He stated he had left her in a hotel lobby shortly after they had purchased some furniture for their new home, and on returning fifteen minutes later she had disappeared.

She had but $2 with her, he said, and cannot account for her disappearance.

CONVICTS ESCAPE

FURRICK, June 9. — Edward Donovan, 51, serving a forty-year sentence for murder in San Mateo county, escaped from the Willow Creek highway convict camp and is being sought by guards and deputies from San Quentin and the sheriff's office here. Donovan fled with Stanley Pusey, 22, who is serving two years for burglary.

BURNS PROVE FATAL

TAFT, June 9. — George W. Speer, employee of the Wallace refineries here, is dead, the result of severe burns received while at work in the gas plant. A minor explosion occurred which covered Speer with flames. He was taken to a hospital in Bakersfield, but died shortly after.

DOGS ORDERED MUZZLED

BAKERSFIELD, June 9. — Muzzling of all dogs in Kern county has been ordered by the Board of Supervisors, who have adapted an ordinance for the enforcement of the order, following a rabies scare which resulted in the shooting of a valuable dog. It is believed a general epidemic is threatened. Fresno county has a similar ordinance.

MINISTERS BAN SCHOOL

WOODLAND, June 9. — Because of the Rev. W. E. Boudell of the Christian Church here, for twelve consecutive years has been chosen to deliver the commencement sermon to local high school graduates, members of the Protestant Ministerial Union have refused to deliver either the invocation or benediction, at the exercises next Sunday.

Carleton Wolf, president of the senior class, denies that Boudell's selection was influenced by Principal William M. Hyman or members of the school board.

The seniors themselves selected him because they like him, he said.

SCHOOL BONDS CARRY

LOS ANGELES, June 9. — School bonds totaling $3,500,000 evidently carried ten to one at a special election held here yesterday. Of the total the Board of Education plans to spend $5,000,000 for new elementary schools and $3,500,000 for high school buildings, to overcome existing crowded conditions.

CRIME DEFENSE LAWYERS SCORED

LOS ANGELES, June 9. — "Unethical lawyers who are suborners of perjury" and who are found "to a startling degree" at defense tables in criminal cases, are the "greatest foes to justice," Justice Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine of Los Angeles county, declared in his address today which opened the tenth annual convention of the California District Attorneys' Association.

Woolwine appealed to the district attorneys to "handle these men with an iron hand."

One of the most important addresses will be by Judge W. W. Middlecough of Tulare county, who will discuss "Japanese ownership of land in California."

Other speakers will be Ezra DeCoto, district attorney of Alameda county; T. W. Luckworth of San Bernardino; Judge Hugh Craik of Stanislaus; A. West of Santa Ana; District Attorney W. A. Hill of Humboldt county; District Attorney Ray Maxwell of Yuba county; District Attorney George Hoyle, Sonoma county; and Federal Judge B. F. Bledsoe of Los Angeles.

SAILOR WRITES LOVE NOTE IN HEART'S BLOOD

LOS ANGELES, June 9. — An alleged love letter written in human blood was introduced in court here today in the divorce suit of Phillip T. Lennox against Gladys Martin Lennox.

"I will see you again some day," read the letter, which was signed, "Your Sailor Boy" and was dated from the Mare Island navy yard.

"This is my own blood," the letter concluded.

Ill Health Often Due to Neglect of Kidneys and Liver

Man organs take part in assimilation of food, and a number are accumulating those portions of the food which are not taken into the blood for the upbuilding of the body. If the eliminative organs, the liver and the kidneys, are not properly cared for, they become diseased. When such is the case, various troubles of a digestive and eliminative character occur, and such troubles are so frequent, and so common that it is absolutely necessary to find some relief. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy was compounded over 40 years ago to help soothe the work of both kidneys and liver. How successful it has been is evidenced by its widespread sale and its being attested by an immense number of appreciative users. Through these many years have told it to the severest tests with the most satisfactory results. The experience of multitudes is sometimes worth more than the wisdom even of the highest physicians. Hence, if you have liver or kidney troubles, you cannot do better than call upon your druggist for Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy.

"About 1 year ago I was so weak and worn out that I could hardly walk. After trying other things without relief, I tried Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy. In a short time the pain left me, my urine cleared up and the rheumatism and despondency vanished. We have used Warner's Safe Remedies ever since with great success in our family." O. F. Rose, Burlington, Kentucky, U. S. A.

Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy contains no harmful ingredients and should be used when the kidneys need attention.

Sold by leading druggists everywhere. Sample sent on receipt of ten cents. Warner's Safe Remedies Co., Dept. 343, Rochester, N. Y. —Advertisement.

WOMEN WIN NEW POLITICAL HONORS

By MARY GARRETT HAY.
Which for the United States?
CHICAGO, June 9.—The first session of the Republican convention proved a historic day for women.
A precedent in national conventions was set when, in like with the progressive attitude taken by the Republican party, Mrs. Manley L. Fosseeh of Minneapolis was delegated to introduce the resolution on organization of the rules committee.
When Mrs. Fosseeh rose, it was the first time a woman had ever taken the convention floor to make a motion.
The convention upset more traditions by naming four women to sit on the rules committee and one on the permanent organization committee.
Then came the biggest step of all. The rules committee decided that the personnel of the executive committee, which controls the inside machinery of the party, shall be enlarged to include with the understanding that seven women will be appointed to this committee.

Public Warned of Grass Fire Danger

Fire Chief Elliott Whitehead today issued warning against the fire menace of dried brush and grass in vacant lots. Every year the department is taxed by grass and brush fires which menace valuable property.
Whitehead is appealing to property owners to have vacant lots burned off after a permit has been secured from the nearest fire station and the grass cut away five feet from all buildings and fences. The chief warns against starting brush fires on a windy day.

People in the balconies have binoculars trying to count the hairs on the dome of Bryan, who sits with the newspaper fellows.
"Why wear that carnation?" she asked Lodge. "To distinguish the only chairman this convention has," he replied.
The delegates haven't got the marching habit yet; they saunter in like Indians.

Grandson Attacks Will of Relative

Fred Warnke, grandson of Mrs. Elsie Miller who died last April in Alameda, has instituted a contest of his aunt's will in which she bequeathed her $20,000 estate to a daughter, Neta Tunnicliffe. Soon after the woman's death, Warnke filed a will, dated in 1912, in which he was named heir to the estate. The daughter then came forth with a will dated in 1913. Warnke claims undue influence was used by the daughter in inducing her mother to make the second will.

LABOR FIGHT ON LEAGUE MAPPED

MONTREAL, June 9.—Charges that the American Federation of Labor convention was brought to a British dominion to favor British propaganda were made today by Irish-American delegates following a caucus to make plans to attack the executive council's endorsement of the league of nations.
Dan McKillop of Seattle, who introduced a resolution demanding recognition of the Irish republic and the withdrawal of British troops from Ireland, declared that "the Irish cause would have almost unanimous support of delegates from the United States."
A resolution pledging the federation's moral and financial aid to the Boston policemen's union was introduced. City policemen's union introduced a resolution for an international union of policemen.
Another resolution demanding the exclusion of Japanese and other Asiatic immigrants from the "gentlemen's agreement" with Japan, exclusion of Japanese "picture brides" and a law to prevent the children of Asiatic parents from becoming American citizens.
The International Ladies' Garment Makers' Union introduced a resolution demanding Congressional investigation of profiteering in women's clothing.
Equal suffrage for the District of Columbia was urged in another resolution.

Woman Confesses to Forging Rail Passes

LOS ANGELES, June 9.—Anna Powell Bennett, under arrest here as one of the fourteen persons indicted for alleged forgery of railway passes, has made a complete confession implicating others, according to Chief Special Agent Connell of the department of justice.
The confession, Connell says, names T. W. Powell of Kansas City, another defendant, as co-leader with her in the alleged fraud ring. The passes, Connell said, were printed in Kansas City. Mrs. Bennett was arrested in Portland, Ore.

SPEAKERS OUTLINE

A rally will be held at the Technical high school auditorium here today evening in the interests of the Boy Scout summer camp, opening on June 21. Speakers will tell of the advantages of the camp and a demonstration of the scout work will be staged. Thirty boys who passed the examinations held in conjunction with the camp work last year will be presented with medals.

TRIAL OF ALLEGED RED POSTPONED

With the announcement that he would not be able to go on with the defense in his trial on charges of criminal syndicalism and a further request that Judge James G. Quinn instruct the jury to refrain from reading the newspaper accounts of the trial, the case of the people against J. C. Taylor was today continued until tomorrow.
Taylor declared that as he is acting as his own attorney he would require time to prepare his opening statement to the jury and arrange for the presentation of his evidence, which he said would not be more than three or four days. Deputy District Attorney A. A. Rogers Jr. and Earl Warren readily consented to a continuance of one day.
Taylor moved to strike out all testimony relating to the I. W. W., as it was not even claimed by the prosecution that he was a member of that organization; also all testimony relating to anything that took place before the syndicalist law went into effect, declaring the constitution holds a person cannot be accused of violating a law if the acts were committed prior to the passage of the law; to strike out and to instruct the jury to disregard every bit of testimony in the case on the ground that it is immaterial and to instruct the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal.
Judge Quinn denied all of the motions.

ASK THE TRIBUNE A Department of Questions and Answers

Questions relating to legal or medical subjects and questions on proprietary articles or on the value of coins will not be answered in this column. Correspondents must give their full name and address so that a reply may be sent by mail if deemed advisable. The name and address will not be published.

Editor The TRIBUNE:—Could you tell me where I could apply for a position on a ship running from here to the Orient or Manila as cabin boy? When and where did the Steamer Valencia sink, and what were the names of the cooks on board at that time?—Subscriber.

(a) Steward's department, Pacific Mail Steamship Company's office, San Francisco. (b) The steamer Valencia was wrecked off Cape Beale January 22, 1906. Captain Johnson, her master, was drowned. S. H. Hancock, chief cook, and J. J. Johnson, third cook, are the only cooks whose names appear on the list of survivors. They were saved.

Editor The TRIBUNE: What will take ink out of the cover of a book? The book is not leather bound.—Mrs. H. W. S.

It may be possible to remove it with ink eraser fluid, which can be purchased at book stores. If the binding is a fast color, weak oxalic acid solution may be used.

Editor The TRIBUNE: Are Spanish-American war veterans to be included in the bonus proposition if passed? I enlisted in 1899 and went to the Philippines. Was mustered out in 1901.—Old Subscriber.

No. Not unless you served in the recent war.

Editor The TRIBUNE: A party owes me a bill for merchandise, which has been running for over two years. Is it outlawed, or have I any chance of collecting it?—Stockton Subscriber.

If it was a running account at the time last payment was made you have a chance to collect it.

Editor The TRIBUNE: How can plain glass be colored to any shade desired?—M. L. McAlvay.

This process is known only to glass manufacturers and glass blowers. The coloring is done at the time of manufacture.

Editor The TRIBUNE: What would happen if a golf ball was cut open? How long can a teacher in a grammar school keep a child after the time for dismissal?—H. P. and L. M.

(a) Nothing would happen if you cut open a modern Spalding ball. Golf ball centers were originally filled with gas, which has been done away with. (b) One hour.

Reader, Subscriber, Pro Bono Publico, etc. Unsigned communications to this department will not be answered hereafter. See head of column.

ARCHBISHOP ASKS AID FOR IRELAND

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—A large crowd attended the public mass meeting held last night in Dreamland Rink, and heard Archbishop Daniel J. Mannix of Melbourne, Australia, rebuke the framers of the World War peace treaty, declaring it was a betrayal of America's humanity and call upon the United States to aid Ireland in her fight for independence. Andrew K. Gallagher was the chairman of the meeting and presented the speaker. Addresses of welcome were made by George Harkins, president of the United Irish Societies of San Francisco, Supervisor Edward I. Wolfe, John A. O'Connell for organizer, labor and J. L. Fawcett, representing the Irish "republic."
In declaring that the fourteen points set forth by Wilson had been violated, Archbishop Mannix paid his respects to the president, saying: "Your purpose in going to the war was well expressed by one to whom we are deeply indebted. He was to be, and whose name does not seem to be, if I can judge rightly, the same honor in this assemblage tonight. I refer to President Wilson."
Continuing he said: "I know not how far, ladies and gentlemen, the failure of the war and of the peace conference—I know not how far it is irreparable, but this I do know that there is just one thing that America can save out of the wreckage of her ideals; and that is that if America stands to Ireland as she is bound to do in consistency, America will win for Ireland the acknowledgment, in Ireland and throughout the world, of the great Irish republic."

DEMOCRATS WILL STAKE THEIR ALL ON LEAGUE ISSUE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 9.—Burr Jenkins will make the nominating speech for William G. McAdoo at the San Francisco Democratic national convention.

This information was contained in a letter from Jenkins received today by the Kansas City Post, of which he is editor and publisher.

He had agreed to make the speech at the urgent request of McAdoo's friends, the letter said.

National headquarters of the Democratic convention were opened today at the Palace hotel by Homer S. Cummings, party chairman.

Despite the fact that Cummings arrived in San Francisco at a late hour last night he was up early this morning superintending the opening of his quarters and interviewing the scores who pressed upon him for information. To the most insistent questions Cummings, in reply, gave the following information:

President Wilson is not coming to San Francisco.

The Democratic platform will be built around the ratification of

Cummings has lost no time in starting the business in hand, that of preparing for the big convention which opens on Tuesday of this week.

A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way which never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Advertisement.

SCHOOL BUILDING PLANS APPROVED

Preliminary sketches for the new Garfield, Bay and Lockwood school buildings have been completed by committees representing the teachers of the three institutions and passed upon by the construction department and supervising architect, C. W. Dickey, and will be submitted to the junior high and neighborhood schools committee this week for approval before being laid before the board of education for final adoption.

The plans for the Garfield school include the first unit of a new group to cost $300,000, and provides for a gymnasium, auditorium, shops and a home economics department. The structure will cost $50,000. The Lockwood plans call for additions to the present school, converting the institution into a junior high school. The Bay school appropriation of $150,000, the first unit of a new $300,000 group, will provide for the first half of the completed edifice on the present location enlarged.

'BOLSHEVIKI DAY' FROWNED UPON

A gentlemen's agreement and teacher-chaperones brought to naught the "Bolsheviki Day" which was scheduled to take place in the Oakland High school on Thursday last. Leaders, however, boast that in the time which was used in discussing, debating and finally settling the matter, non-partisans won over.

The revolt was to assume the form of a picnic. A perfect day was to be passed in the wilderness of the foothills, where defiance was to be shown to the school authorities. The revolutionists invited two members of the faculty to chaperone them in the Bolshevik uprising.

Oakland Songbird Chords at Concert

Miss Mabel Riegleman, the Oakland girl who has achieved distinction with the Chicago and Boston Grand Opera Companies, was the soloist last night at the last concert of the season of the Orpheus Club in the Municipal Opera House. A large and enthusiastic audience greeted the gifted young woman. She offered two dramatic arias including the "Jewel Song" from Faust and "Visi d'Arte" from "Tosca," besides a group of songs.

Marking the first aerial passenger carrying flight to and from the Yosemite Valley, Kenneth Unger, pilot, an Avro 110-horsepower airplane, landed at Durant field this morning at 7:40 o'clock, having left the Camp Curry landing field in the foot of the valley at 6 o'clock. On the return trip his passengers were Miss Mary Conway and Mrs. Vera Derham.

Unger made his trip into the valley Monday morning, leaving here at 3 o'clock and going the entire distance in 1 hour and 50 minutes. At that time he carried H. R. Villenur and Mrs. Derham.

DINNER HONORS SCHOOL HEADS

With the dinner given by the school heads of the county, city and school administrations in attendance, the Oakland Board of Education and Principals Club will give a banquet this evening at the Claremont Hotel in honor of S. P. Meads, S. G. S. Dunbar and J. C. Wilson, who have served as teachers for forty-one, fifty-five and thirty years.

All three of the veteran educators will retire this year as principals of the local schools. Meads is retiring from the Cole school at the age of 74, Dunbar is retiring as principal at Durant after thirty-three years in the position and fifty-five years as an educator in California, at the age of 72 and Wilson is retiring after his long service at Longfellow school at the age of 78.

Robert Fitzgerald, local attorney and a pupil of Meads, will be chief speaker, and Miss Elizabeth Arlett, president of the "Principals Club," will preside over the elaborate program of entertainment. Floyd Gray, president of the Board of Education, and Superintendent Fred Hunter also will speak.

Theater Men Fight Exhibitor-Producers

CLEVELAND, June 9.—The motion picture theater owners of America are determined to oppose the producer who is entering the exhibiting field. This became known today, simultaneously with the announcement that two opposing factions had joined what is known as the Sydney S. Cohen force.

Whether nineteen men challenged Cohen because of their seemingly close relationship with production, will be admitted to the convention was to be decided today.

Utah Railroad Man Comes to California

Says County Is Entitled To Another State Senator

Increased legislative representation for Alameda County is expected by Senator Arthur H. Reed when the senatorial and assembly districts of the state are reformed on the basis of the 1920 census. Upon the incomplete census reports for all parts of California he believes that Alameda county will be entitled to one more senator and two more assemblymen making the county's delegation consist of five senators and ten assemblymen.

"We have not received all of the census reports for the state," said Senator Reed, "but in view of the growth in population which Alameda county is shown to have enjoyed during the last ten years, I think it will entitle us to greater representation. Our growth I think has been larger in proportion than in other sections."

And if the complete census reports bear out his belief Senator Reed announced, "I will certainly use all of my strength to see that when the new lines are drawn, Alameda county is given full representation which I believe would consist of five senators and ten assemblymen whereas we now have four senators and eight assemblymen."

The constitution of the State provides that the State shall be redivided every ten years and that the State shall be divided into forty senatorial and eighty assembly districts, as nearly equal in population as may be. The term "as nearly equal" is given a very broad meaning when it comes to redistricting the State and a battle royal ensues between the various districts which seek to get as complete a representation as possible.

Ten years ago the fight in the legislature was marked for its bitterness and as a result the session adjourned without the lines being redrawn. As a result a special session was called and the redistricting was made one of the principal matters for consideration.

SEVERAL FACTIONS. The fight is always participated in by several factions, the various large centers of population dividing into separate groups and the interior counties forming another. Already a plan is being discussed whereby the northern and central counties of smaller population would combine to prevent the city delegations from exercising control in remapping the State.

Los Angeles is looked upon as one of the factors which will demand more representation.

Ten years ago she carried the 10th and 11th representatives already elected and she is now expected to demand more representation.

The legislature also will be called upon to reform the congressional districts if the census shows California entitled to more congressmen and the population reports so far published seem to indicate that is the case, according to Senator Reed.

REDEDICTING STRIKE. Reed has given the subject of congressional redistricting deep study, said Senator Reed, "but from early census reports it looks as if California will get additional congressmen. And if it is true that Alameda county's gain in population has been larger in proportion than other sections, we likely will be entitled to additional representation at Washington."

I doubt whether this county would be entitled to two congressmen but as I view it a line could be drawn somewhere near San Leandro and all of the section west of it would have one congressman and the section east of it could be combined with some other county, said Senator Reed, and be given a congressman.

"It used to be that Alameda, Contra Costa and Contra Costa counties composed a congressional district, but due to the growth in population, Alameda was given one congressman and the other two counties were united with Sacramento in another district."

School Book Statute Test Suit Is Sought

SACRAMENTO, June 9.—Suits to test the constitutionality of the California high school free text book law passed by the 1917 legislature will be filed by the McMillan Publishing company in the event a plea that five of its text books be retained by the State Board of Education is denied.

The publishing company made its demand for retention to the State Board of Education here, with the demand a request that it be denied so that suit to test the validity of the law may be brought.

The board banned the text books in question because the publishing company increased its prices about 10 per cent on each volume, according to State Superintendent of Public Instruction Will C. Wood.

Raise for Normal Teachers Approved

SACRAMENTO, June 9.—A deficiency appropriation of $100,000, to be distributed among the seven State Normal schools of California to increase the pay of teachers, has been approved by Governor Stephens and the State Board of Control.

Teachers are now receiving from $1800 to $2400 a year, and the increase will amount to about 20 per cent, it was said. Decision was made by a conference of the State Normal school presidents.

It was decided at the same time to go before the next legislature with a budget that would allow further increases of salaries to range from $2000 to $3000, with a salary scale of from $2400 to $3000 for faculty officers.

his assistant, who has been in San Francisco for several weeks. At its conclusion the national chairman expressed himself as highly pleased with the progress reported on convention arrangements.

ELDER ON HIS WAY

To join Cummings with the next few hours, National Committee member Elder of Idaho is on his way from Portland. He is to act as a member of the committee on arrangements.

Idaho is to send a delegation of sixteen instead of eight and each delegate will have one-half a vote. The delegation is unopposed but is said to favor Governor Caldwell.

In Oregon the State central committee will hold a meeting a week before the convention, at which time they will name a delegate to succeed George Baldwin, delegate at large, who died. The committee will also name alternates as none were provided in the State primaries.

It is considered probable that Dr. J. W. Morrow will be named to succeed Baldwin.

Headquarters received word today that the canal zone delegates sailed today for New Orleans en route for San Francisco. They have been instructed to impress upon the convention the need of a civil government and business management of the zone, as well as a seat in Congress.

Cummings would take but little time of today to discuss the Republican convention and the speech of Senator Lodge. What little he did say was better.

I have read the speech of Senator Lodge, he said, and I feel sorry for him. He knows better. The nation is praying for peace and the Republican party is offering it war. They killed a peace treaty, this continuing a state of war in Europe, and Mr. Lodge would give us more war by fighting Mexico. I can understand why the Chicago convention is so wildered and leaderless. No definite and constructive program has been offered it. It is a convention of negotiation only. Senator Lodge's speech was evidently made to fit the occasion."

Cummings declined to make any predictions as to what would happen in the coming convention except that the party would favor ratification of the treaty. He said that the league and treaty would constitute the leading fight in November.

A conference between Cummings, W. R. Hollister, executive secretary of the national committee, and W. J. Cochran, director of publicity, with J. Bruce Kramer, vice-president of the committee, was held this morning. Preliminary plans for the functioning of the convention were gone over and a program of additional conference

T. AND D. FILM SHOWS G.O.P. BOYS EN ROUTE

College commencement exercises and politics are mingled in scenes on this week's TRISTAR T. and D. Shows of the T. and D. theater.

California's G. O. P. delegates, who are making so much noise now at Chicago, are shown leaving on the special Mills College graduates and some distinguished guests are also shown.

Other scenes include the Memorial day exercises at Mountain View cemetery.

300 Acres Bought For Farm School

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—Governor Stephens signed a contract here today for the purchase of 300 acres of land for the purpose of providing for the first branch farm school of the University of California.

The school will give instruction in animal husbandry, horticulture and other subjects taught at Davis.

SOCIALLY DANCE PLANNED

An informal dance will be given tomorrow night by the Young Ladies Social Club and Sodality of St. Augustine's Church under the direction of Miss Rita Driscoll, Miss Agnes Duffy and Miss Frances Young in the parish hall at Alcatraz avenue and Dana street.

It has been decided that the giving of a ticket with a subscription of $100 is not selling the ticket and that there will be no war tax charged. The crowd, according to Kramer, will be a record-breaking one. Fifteen special trains have been ordered from various parts of the country and indications are that the delegates, in unusual number, will bring their families.

FATHER OF STOLEN CHILD COLLAPSES

NORRISTOWN, Pa., June 9.—George H. Coughlin, father of 13-months-old Blakely Coughlin, who was kidnapped last Wednesday, collapsed today and physicians said tonight his condition is serious. Mrs. Coughlin also is under the care of physicians.

More than thirty letters demanding ransom for the return of the baby have been received by the Coughlins. All but three of them, it was said tonight, have been eliminated as clever.

"It is reasonable certain," said the family attorney, "that one of the letters was written by the kidnapers following the insertion in the newspapers that we were willing to pay $5000 ransom and guarantee the abductors immunity if Blakely was returned unharmed. The kidnapers have not complied with our demand for proof."

Definite news as to whether the baby found in a home of a negro woman in Dallas, Tex., is Blakely Coughlin is expected tomorrow. The photograph of the stolen child was sent to Dallas Sunday.

Lamb Chops a la "Angelo"

Here's how: Fry thick chops in butter. Add a sliced onion, a clove of garlic and pepper, a bay leaf, a half-cup of Angelo Walnut Sauce, and boiling water to cover. Simmer slowly, adding water as needed, till onions are tender. Thicken a little for a gravy; serve with mashed potatoes. (Veal or pork chops are good the same way). The rare savor of Angelo California Walnut Sauce is the prime secret of this delicious dish.

Dance to Benefit St. Joseph's Home

An entertainment and dance will be given at the Sacred Heart hall, Fortieth and Grove streets, next Friday evening, the proceeds of which will be given as a benefit to the deaf and dumb children at St. Joseph's Home, Fortieth and Telegraph.

Misses Catherine Mulqueeney and Miss Adrienne Bellemans, who played an important part in Aunt Elsie's Maytime picnic at Lakeside park, are the promoters of the benefit, assisted by nearly fifty children of the neighborhood.

The Question Alice Holcombe Asked

"It is a queer thing about that telephone," Alice Holcombe said reflectively, unconsciously answering my mental query as explicitly as if I had actually clothed it in words. "The cord was pulled away from the base as if some one had yanked it from its connection. Kenneth thinks Milly might have grasped at it as she went in to get the spot—but, of course, nobody really knows how it happened."

"But that seems a most plausible solution," I said eagerly determined to stifle the almost certain knowledge I had that the telephone cord had not been jerked out by his wife's struggles, but earlier when something sinister, threatening, had peremptorily stopped her abusive language.

"It does," she returned indifferently, and I saw that the incident of the telephone disconnection was but a minor detail to her, that her brain and heart were full of some other phase of the tragedy she was retelling to me. In another moment she had given agitated voice to her fears.

"But the thing that frightens me most of all is Kenneth's command to you and me to keep away from him," she said, eyeing me with an odd, furtive air, as if she wished to watch my reception of her statement.

"MR. STOCKBRIDGE'S MESSAGE." "Suppose you tell me just what he said," I answered quietly.

"He only spoke to me once the whole evening," she returned, "and then he seized an opportunity when the others were so engaged that there was no one within possible hearing."

"Alice," he said, and his voice was so mournfully solemn that it chilled me. I must tell you something quickly, and you must promise to obey me blindly, for I haven't time, even if I could, to tell you the reason for my request. Neither you nor Mrs. Graham must come to see me or try to communicate with me in any manner until I give you leave. I shall not be home after a few days."

"I—I—AM AFRAID," she hadn't meant to ask me the question; it had burst from her inadvertently and I could see that she was unconsciously harboring a feeling of jealous resentment because of the fact that Kenneth Stockbridge had entrusted me with papers of which she knew nothing.

"We were discussing the work of my classes some weeks ago, and he was kind enough to lend me a number of papers he had compiled concerning those particular branches. You know how methodical he is about those things. I suppose he wished to send me a reminder to take care of them, or else he might inadvertently return them at this time when for his own reasons he doesn't wish to see us."

"As I saw my friend's face unconsciously brighten at my careful concealment of a secret, I said to myself, 'I must be a fool. I was fast becoming a champion fastidious but there seemed to be no other course open to me. I couldn't break faith with a woman whom I loved so devotedly, guess the secret which he had kept from her for so many weary years.'"

"I wish I knew the meaning of it all," she said dully after a moment's pause. "I—I am so afraid—but I mustn't think of that. But one thing is certain. Milly must have left some message about this, or he wouldn't have sent us this caution. What do you think?"

'MYSTERY' PAPER
MAKES MAN HEIR

When Mrs. Mary Louise Hibbs was ill of influenza contracted during the epidemic while she was nursing "flu" victims in the auditorium here, she placed a sealed envelope in the hands of Fred Shoo of 401 E. 14th St. of San Francisco. She told him to open the mystery envelope until after her death and she refused to divulge its contents. Shoo placed the envelope in his safe and forgot about it. He thought it was just the whim of an elderly woman of failing health.

Saturday Mrs. Hibbs died and when the envelope was opened it was found to contain a will leaving all the Hibbs property to Mr. and Mrs. Shoo, because of the kindness they had shown her.

Mrs. Shoo said today she had lived Mrs. Hibbs for many years and had called on her every day during the six weeks of confinement which ended in her death. "During the life of Hibbs the family was reputed to be good financially, but Mrs. Shoo said today that the estate was not large."

Mrs. Shoo has no known relatives in the west.

RACES WILL END CYCLISTS' JAUNT

An indication that summer is here again will be seen on June 20, when hundreds of local motorcycle riders make their annual gypsy tour. Each year, on the third Sunday in June, riders of the two-wheeled vehicles celebrate the coming of summertime with a ride over the countryside, ending the tour with a picnic and races.

This year Bonita Park, near Sun Valley, has been chosen as the rendezvous for the gathering. Refreshments will be served at noon and the afternoon will be given over to sports. A feature of the day will be a polo game between the crack team of the Oakland Motorcycle Club and the San Francisco team. Many other contests will be held. The tour is under the auspices of the Bay Counties Motorcycle Club.

Miss Funsten
To Wed at Moore Home

One of the most important weddings socially east of the bay will be that of Miss Betty Funsten and Howard William Moore to take place at 8:30 o'clock tonight at the home of the bride-elect's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. George Moore, in Claremont. More than a hundred guests from both sides of the bay will be present, the beautiful ceremony to be read by Dean J. Warner Greham of Fresno.

The nuptial vows will be exchanged before an improvised altar of pink sweet peas and ferns, and the remainder of the rooms will be decorated in a profusion of pink roses, snapdragons and delphinium. Miss Funsten will be attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Johnston, Funsten, Jr. and Miss Isabel Strong as matron of honor and maid of honor, respectively. Reed Funsten is to be best man for Miss Funsten.

Miss Funsten is a graduate of Stanford and member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma society. Her fiancé, who is a Yale graduate, is a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

CLERGY FROM THE EAST

Among the recent arrivals at the Hotel Claremont are Mr. and Mrs. George Moore and their two attractive daughters, the Misses Deborah and June. Mr. Moore is a capitalist from the eastern metropolis and came to sojourn with his family for some little time.

Other guests are Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Downey and family, from Sacramento, and Mrs. Adeline Adler of San Francisco.

At a prettily appointed mid-afternoon wedding Miss Dorothy Grace Davidson became the bride of Robert Davidson, son of the late Robert Davidson, on Saturday, June 5, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Davidson 10 Yosemite avenue. Only relatives witnessed the ceremony, performed by Rev. William B. MacDonald of Plymouth Congregational church. In the drawing room, festooned uniquely in pepper berries and marigolds, with Canterbury bells arranged about, Mrs. George Snook rendered the wedding march and Miss Dorothy Larson was the bride's attendant. Mrs. Caldwell gave a stunning dark blue going-away costume with hat to match, and carried the conventional bouquet of bride roses. The young people left immediately for a short honeymoon, not disclosing their destination. They will reside in Oakland in John's street.

MISS DOROTHY POTTER has returned to her home after a month's visit in Marin county, where she was the house guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Moore, formerly of this city.

WEDDING IN FRESNO

The marriage of Miss Milly Trempp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Trempp of Fresno and Thomas Russell Simpson, son of the late John Simpson, took place Saturday evening at the home of the bridegroom-elect's parents in Fresno.

Miss Trempp was a former student of the Oakland Technical high school and has taken part in amateur theatricals during her school days. She has been residing at 445 Colby street, Berkeley.

Simpson was a lieutenant with the 11th engineers and saw two years active service in France and Belgium, having just graduated from the university with high honors as civil engineer. He is a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. The honeymoon of the young couple will be passed in the Sierra, where Simpson is making some geological work.

CARDS OF CONGRATULATION

Congratulations are being extended Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Swift of Hadley and upon the birth of little Mrs. Swift was Miss Pearl.

Schluter before her marriage. Many pretty remembrances have been sent to greet the little newcomer.

Miss Adeline Lentz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Lentz, and Sydney W. Miller are to be married June 16. The service will take place at the home of the bride's parents on Sixteenth avenue. Miss Adeline Lentz will be bridesmaid. Miss Adeline Lentz is a daughter of the late Adeline Lentz, who was a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Miller is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Miller of Berkeley. The future home of the couple will be in the bay region.

CANNERIES WAGE RAISE PROJECTED

In a proclamation just issued by Governor Stephens the industrial welfare commission of California today was authorized to meet in San Francisco at once to fix a universal wage for 55,000 male cannery workers who are employed in more than 100 such factories all over the state.

Increases in pay over the 45 cents an hour now paid to men working in canneries will be retroactive from June, according to Mrs. Catherine Edson, executive officer of the commission, who said the commissioners would meet within the next few days.

The proclamation was issued as one of the most important examples of wage arbitration in California after practically every cannery in California had signed an agreement to abide by the decision of the commissioners. There is no law which authorizes the welfare commission to fix the wages of men, although that of women and minors for such work has been fixed at $16 a week.

Only through the agreement of the employers to abide by the decision was the governor's order made possible. The other commissioners who will meet in San Francisco are A. B. Dohrman, Alex Goldstein and William Mathewson.

Parents Fear Boy Has Joined Vessel

That their son has run away to sea is the belief of the parents of Forrester K. Clifford, 15-year-old Oakland boy, who has not been heard from since his disappearance on May 18. His parents reside at 877 Thirtieth street. The day that he left, the young lad did not go to school and told his intended brother, Albert, that he intended to secure work on a ship. The lad is of light complexion, 5 feet 8 inches in height and weighs 135 pounds.

Will Try to Bring Convention Here

Final instructions from members of the Oakland Kiwanis Club were given to W. A. Wann, delegate of the club to the Kiwanis international convention to be held in Portland on June 16, 17 and 18 at the luncheon of the club yesterday. Efforts will be made to secure the next convention for Oakland, Ramsey Probst, attorney, was chairman of the day.

GIRL IS STUDENT EDITOR

Miss Blossom Faber, a student of the Fremont high school, is the new editor of the weekly newspaper of Fremont high school, for the fall term. Her election marks the second time that the position has been held by a girl, the present editor being Miss Virginia Kilgore.

News of the Churches

Every evening of this week novel prayers will be recited at the various Catholic churches in the East Bay section, in preparation to honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus on Friday and St. Anthony, whose feast day comes next Sunday. Special music and singing will be given by the chorists and many of the services also. At the "down-town" church—St. Mary's—several priests of the archdiocese will preach appropriate sermons in connection with the novena. Tonight Rev. Eugene Warren will preach, Thursday, Rev. Patrick McGrattan, and Friday, Rev. Francis Ahern.

ST. JOHN'S

St. John's Presbyterian Church, Berkeley, has a most varied and interesting program of activities for the week. Tonight the mid-week prayer service will be held, when the enthusiastic study of the Book of Galatians will again be taken up. The pastor, Rev. F. W. Russell, will be at 7 o'clock.

On Saturday a picnic supper and "Get Acquainted Hour" is scheduled for members and friends of the church. Work will be held in the afternoon, and all bringing their lunch to the O. & A. trestle under the live oaks up the road at 5:30 a good lunch is assured.

BUILDING FUND BENEFIT

A comedy entitled "The Master of Sunset Inn" will be enacted next Friday evening at 7:30 P. M. at the building fund of the local church of Latter Day Saints (Mormons). It and Mrs. Willard Done, well known in religious and educational circles about the bay, will take leading parts. The play is a brilliant and merry little composition and a most entertaining and artistic rendering is anticipated by those who know the cast. The building fund, to which this entertainment is an aid, is for the erection of a $20,000 church on the site near Lake Merritt, which the congregation has already purchased.

CHURCH WOMEN'S CLUBS

Many of the Women's Clubs of the churches in Southern California are taking up informal discussions of the Y. M. C. A. It is requested that the bills to be presented before the next legislature and of work being done by the committee having the community property referendum in charge. It is said that before long the church women about the bay will be considering this also. Among

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

The annual picnic of the First Christian Bible school will be held next Saturday, June 12, at Trestle Glen. "Free for all" races, games and sports will be conducted by the Y. M. C. A. It is requested that the picnicers bring their lunch, but ice cream will be furnished by the church. All members and friends are invited.

FIRST CHRISTIAN WOMEN

Due to a generous response from the interested clubs mentioned are West Adams Methodist Ladies Aid Society, Santa Clara County W. C. T. U., San Jose W. C. T. U. and College Women's Club, Long Beach. Mrs. A. E. Carter of Oakland, former president of the council, is chairman of the community property committee.

STUDENTS ELECT OFFICERS

Beard Murphy will be president of the student body at the Oakland High school for the fall term as a result of elections held at the school this week. Milton Butts was elected school yell leader.

Are You Human?

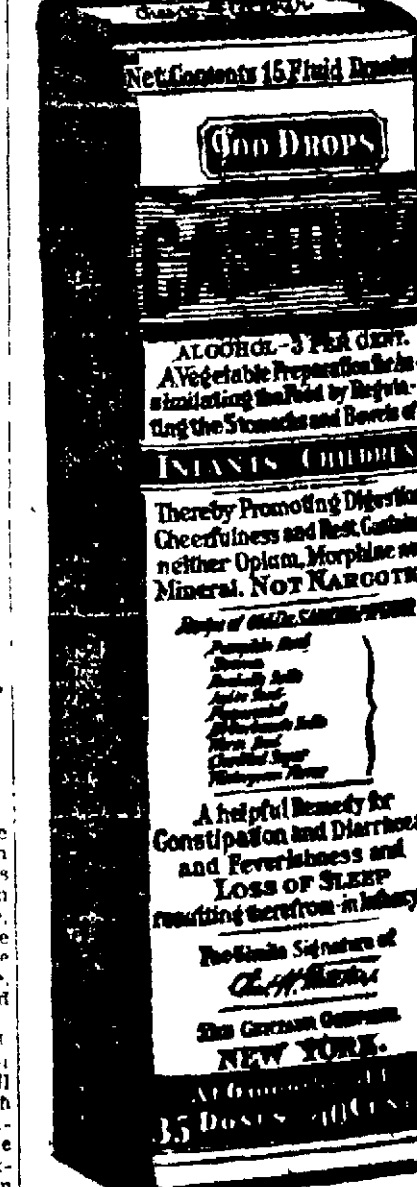

A little baby. A little child. Don't they appeal to you? Doesn't your heart yearn to pick them up, to cuddle them close to you, to shield them from all harm? sure it does else you're not human. Being human you love them. Their very helplessness makes you reach out in all your strength to aid them. In health there's no flower so beautiful. In illness there's no night so black.

Save them then. Use every precaution. Take no chance.

When sickness comes, as sickness will, remember it's just a baby, just a child and if the Physician isn't at hand don't try some remedy that you may have around the house for your own use.

Fletcher's Castoria was made especially for babies' ills and you can use it with perfect safety as any doctor will tell you. Keep it in the house.

Children Cry For Fletcher's
CASTORIA

Do the People Know?

Do you know why you are asked to call for Fletcher's Castoria when you want a child's remedy? why you must insist on Fletcher's? For years we have been explaining how the popularity of Fletcher's Castoria has brought out innumerable imitations, substitutes and counterfeits.

To protect the babies: to shield the homes and in defense of generations to come we appeal to the better judgment of parents to insist on having Fletcher's Castoria when in need of a child's medicine. And remember above all things that a child's medicine is made for children—a medicine prepared for grown-ups is not interchangeable. A baby's food for a baby. And a baby's medicine is just as essential for the baby.

The Castoria Recipe (it's on every wrapper) has been prepared by the same hands in the same manner for so many years that the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and perfection in the product are synonymous.

NOTHING SHOULD READ THE BOOKLET THAT IS AROUND EVERY BOTTLE OF FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

JAIL TO CLOSE ON YOUTH IF HE SEES HIS LOVE

Although her sweetheart has been released from jail after serving but three months of a three-year sentence for passing a series of fictitious checks up and down the coast, Miss Beatty, who pleaded herself to wait three years for Lieutenant E. Hand Becker, former social lion at Stanford University and later a member of the Royal Flying Corps, the wedding bells cannot ring until Becker's three years are up.

Becker is now on a ranch near Oakland. He was released from the Los Angeles county jail Monday on parole, granted by Sheriff John C. Cline and District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine of Los Angeles county, sitting as a parole board. The parole was granted upon the recommendation of Superior Judge Willis, who sentenced Becker. The approval of Judge Willis on the parole papers reads as follows:

"Approved on condition that defendant do not marry or keep company with women until discharged."

Becker's father, who is head of Lloyd's insurance agency for the entire Pacific Coast, was active in securing his son's release. He has promised to keep his son on a ranch and away from women and the influence of the big cities.

Becker was first arrested in 1915. His father promised to be responsible for him and secured his release on probation. He was again arrested in January of this year for cashing fictitious checks. His father at first refused to take any steps to obtain his son's release and refused to make good the checks young Becker had passed. Later, however, he paid them off and took steps to secure his son's freedom.

When Becker was arrested last he confessed that he was in love with Miss Beatty, who is now a moving picture actress. The girl came to the jail to see him daily and promised to wait until his three-year sentence was up. In the meantime another pretty girl was calling at the jail to see him. This, it is said, caused Judge Willis to make the stipulation that young Becker was not to marry or keep company with women, who have always brought about his misbehavior, until his sentence is up.

Young Becker, according to wire advice, was whisked away from Los Angeles before he could see his sweetheart.

Convention Delegates To Stay in Oakland

The delegation from Indiana and Ohio, the only groups of delegates to the Democratic National Convention in San Francisco for which reservations have been made in Oakland hotels.

Besides these a large number of reservations have been made for individuals. Two more small groups, one of twenty-five and the other of fifty, are yet to be allotted to the Key Route Inn.

The delegation from Indiana has engaged quarters at Hotel Oakland. The Atlanta delegates will be housed at the Key Route Inn and the Columbus Glee Club at the Hotel St. Mark. The Hotel Claremont, running to capacity, has set aside ten rooms for Democratic convention visitors.

Master Mariners to Meet in Portland

SEATTLE, June 9.—Pilot boats, veteran mariners, a "fleet" of automobiles set out from here today, bound for Portland, Oregon, with the Seattle delegation to the Pacific coast conference of the National Association of Masters, Mates and Pilots of America, on June 10, 11 and 12.

At the wheels were Captain C. W. Call, president of Washington Association No. 12; Captain Lindley Davis, vice-president of the Cary-Tug and Barge Company; Captain C. R. Mace and Mr. J. E. Brinker, wife of Captain Brinker of the steamship Eastern Cloud, United States Shipping Board.

Important questions concerning the seafaring men of the Pacific coast will be discussed at the conference.

Teachers' Pay Raise May Unite Districts

HEALDSBURG, June 9.—Ten Sonoma county school districts may consolidate into two as the result of meetings held recently in Occidental and Forestville. As a result of the consolidation four districts, which maintain single teacher schools, would have a combined attendance of from 150 to 180, with five instructors. The other six, if combined, would form a school of 146 pupils with five teachers. These consolidations are a result from a request by all the trustees for a higher tax rate so that instructors could be paid a living wage.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford were callers yesterday at the White House, where they were accorded an audience with Secretary Tumulty. After the visit they explained that they merely called to pay their respects to the secretary while waiting for their European passports.

Hay Reaches $50 in Grass Valley Mart

GRASS VALLEY, June 9.—The stories of $50 per ton hay which which pioneers of the valley of the very early days have been wont for seventy years to amaze their auditors, now are matched by fact, as hay has again touched the $50 mark.

Since October of last year the retail price of hay has exactly doubled on the local market.

Pope Stricken With Serious Illness

PARIS, June 8.—The Pope has been taken ill suddenly, and his condition is serious, according to news received here yesterday from Rome.

He is unable to perform his duties in the Vatican, it was said. Frequent injections of morphine were being administered by Dr. Battistini, the Papal physician, in an effort to aid him, the reports declare.

Roosevelt's Glasses

Ex-President Roosevelt was awkward and stupid as a boy until he suddenly discovered that he could not see as well as other boys.

He tells us that glasses changed his career.

Most backward children have defective eyesight. No boy or girl can do well in school who cannot see distinctly. With correctly fitted glasses nine out of every ten improve immediately in school work.

Success in school promises success in later life. Have your child's eyes examined at the first indication of trouble.

PARENTS HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR STUDENTS' ACTS

BERKELEY, June 9.—Large allowances from generous parents for students at the University of California were scored yesterday by Dr. John C. Merriam, acting president of the state institution, who appeared before the college regents to explain the action of Dr. David P. Barrows in dismissing six students for participation in an alleged orgy at the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity house.

Parents of students must cooperate with the university authorities in order that the institution may attain the maximum of moral good and must not allow their sons and daughters an excess of money to spend, declared Dean Merriam.

"MISGUIDED GENEROSITY"

Most of the alleged excesses the college dean laid to the "misguided generosity" of indulgent fathers and mothers.

Dr. Merriam told the regents that in its proper perspective the moral tone at the university among its thousands of young men and women is sound and that moral lapses, which he said must be expected among so many students, were fortunately very few.

In the absence of Dr. Barrows, Dean Merriam informed the regents that the "Delta" party had been made the subject of immediate investigation by the university, with parents and fraternity officers both notified of final action and full details of the case.

"BARROWS PROMPT"

"President Barrows has acted promptly, vigorously and effectively and has made it clear that the University of California cannot tolerate immoral and improper conduct on the part of those who come to the university to work and to avail themselves of the privileges extended."

SOLDIER DIVORCES WIFE WHO LEFT

Although George Franklin Wood, and his wife, Mrs. Hazel May Wood, virtually separated before he went to war, when he answered the call of his country she promised to return to him when he came back. Wood testified today before Superior Judge T. W. Harris, who granted him an interlocutory decree of divorce.

Judge Harris said it was evident the woman had agreed to remain his wife in order to secure the allowances which the government to wives of soldiers.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Hatch, who seeks a divorce from Lloyd E. Hatch, shoe clerk, told Judge E. J. Brown that when she talked with her mother on their business affairs he became angry and insisted they were talking about him; that he mistreated her and to annoy her.

They were married August 27, 1918, and separated November 30 last. Mrs. Hatch asked permission to resume her maiden name of Dahl.

Judge Brown announced he would grant the decree.

Daily Earthquakes Shake Island Group

PAPEETE, Tahiti, June 9.—Earthquakes which have shaken the islands of Tahiti, Moorea and Mehetia without more than a week or two intervals since the autumn of 1918, still continue and have increased in frequency and strength. Of late there have been on an average of two or three a day, usually in the early hours before dawn.

A recent but unconfirmed report affirms that the island of Tubuai, about 400 miles to the south of Tahiti, is also shaking.

This, it is held, would tend to confirm the theory that the source of the disturbance is a sub-marine outbreak somewhere to the south and west, in that part of the Pacific where surface indications would never be seen.

Bride Shifts Her Loves Quickly One in Waiting, Weds Another Mail Courter Loses to Youth

While a mother was tearfully informing the wedding guests that there would be no ceremony and while the suitor who was jilted within the hour set for the nuptials was leaning out of a taxicab window and directing a puzzled chauffeur to dash here and there to the homes of all the girls' acquaintances, pretty Grace Gertrude Coffey, 264 Fourteenth street, San Francisco, had slipped across the bay to Oakland and here, with another man, had secured her second marriage license within the troubled four and twenty hours.

Henry Hansen Schmidt, 23 years old, of Modesto, is the deserted bridegroom who might have been Lester Swanson, 25, and a former service man, is the one whose pleadings won.

At the Coffey home in San Francisco today, Mrs. Mary Coffey is near.

"HAVEN'T SEEN HER."

"I do not think it was right for a girl to act as she did," said the mother. "Why, all of the guests were here, the minister was ready, the trunks had been sent to the boat. Then the bridegroom appeared in an automobile, we rushed out to meet him and looked around for Grace. She was gone. We haven't seen her since and we have not heard a word."

Schmidt toured the city, visiting all with whom the girl might have taken refuge, in a frantic effort to rescue his romance in time for the departure of the President which was to be a honeymoon craft for the pair. He determined that the girl might have sought to avoid the home wedding and that there was a chance she had gone directly to the boat. With Mrs. Coffey active in the car he drove to the pier and there waited until the gangplanks were lifted and the vessel steamed off. There on the wharf stood the three trunks, bedecked with ribbons, dismally and gay at the same time and reminders of the truth of the saying that a woman may change her mind.

"NO WAY TO TREAT HER."

Schmidt has been doing his courting in the mails and had not

Judge E. C. Robinson Returns to Bench

Superior Judge E. C. Robinson has returned from Los Angeles, where he passed a week investigating the juvenile court procedure of that city. He says he found much to interest him in a comparison of the work as carried on there and here. Presiding Judge T. W. Harris took charge of the probate department during Judge Robinson's absence. The latter made the trip to the south by motor.

Do you know that the John Breuner Company is the largest retail manufacturer of mattresses on the coast?

Since one-third of your time is spent in bed, you should be certain that you have a mattress that permits your muscles and nerves to relax. Otherwise you will not derive the rest you need for your daily tasks.

A mattress is bought blind. You don't know what is in it, and must depend upon the reliability of the store from which you buy. The Breuner Company makes all its own hair and floss mattresses and stands back of every one of them.

Breuner Hair Mattresses Guaranteed

A good hair mattress is the finest mattress made today. It is an investment in comfort. A good hair mattress will last for years and be always springy if worked over now and then.

The hair mattresses made in our sunlit shops are of the best materials throughout. Special blowing and picking machines prepare the sterilized hair. A fine grade of ticking is used. These mattresses are made up to order, are thoroughly guaranteed, and will be taken back within thirty days if not satisfactory.

Our best grade, double bed size white hair mattress is priced at $55

Terms—$12.50 down, $5 monthly
Other equally well made and sanitary hair mattresses are priced from $32.50 upward, in double bed size.

BULLETS FAIL TO STOP BANS OF L. A. COUPLE

LOS ANGELES, June 9.—It would require more than bullets to thwart Cupid in the case of Edward Moses of Kansas City and Miss Virginia Holmes of Los Angeles.

Although Moses, Robert Lester of Kansas City and Everett Holmes, brother of the bride, were all severely wounded in a fight with burglars, attempting to steal wedding gifts Monday night, Moses and Miss Holmes were married last night.

The ceremony took place in a hospital ward at the bedside of the bride's brother.

RAID IN VALLEJO

VALLEJO, June 9.—Nineteen men were arrested in a raid last night on a gambling resort at 511 Sonoma street. Those who appeared in court this morning were fined $20 each. Others forfeited their bail. Rose Ross was arrested in the place and is held for vagrancy.

WIELER OBTAIN RECORD OF CASE

With only two days remaining in which to perfect the appeal of Rev. John G. Wieler, convicted of criminal syndicalism, Attorney William B. Cleary secured an order from Superior Judge James G. Quinn citing Attorney T. L. Christianson to appear and show cause why he refused to surrender the transcript of the case in the case and that he refused to give up the transcript until he was paid.

Questioned on the witness stand by Cleary, Christianson said Wieler and the Defense League owed him several hundred dollars for his services in the case and that he refused to give up the transcript until he was paid.

Judge Quinn declared Cleary, being an attorney in the case, was just as much entitled to the use of the transcript as Christianson, regardless of the merits of the claim as to a fee, and ordered the latter to turn over the transcript immediately.

FUND SUIT STOPS STATE ROAD WORK

SACRAMENTO, June 9.—The State Highway Commission yesterday directed Chief Engineer A. B. Fletcher to discontinue all location surveys as soon as possible and discontinue survey parties not needed for construction work already in progress.

This action was taken on account of shortage of funds due to the lack of any market for highway 4 1/2 per cent bonds, commissioners said.

New court action was begun directed against any use of federal aid funds to increase the interest rate of State Highway bonds. Wilson R. Ellis, former secretary of the highway commission, asked the appellate court for a writ of mandamus to compel the state engineer to deposit all outstanding federal aid warrants to the account of highway commission fund.

This writ temporarily ties up federal aid road funds exceeding $300,000 which were to have been used in part to complete the sale of $3,400,000 of highway bonds at the market rate.

HUMOR PATHOS ROMANCE

Story a day

Conscience in Art

(Copyright, 1929, by Doubleday, Page & Co.; published by special arrangement with the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

"I never could hold my pen to the legitimate ethics of pure swindling," said Jeff Peters on day.

"Andy had too much imagination to be honest. He used to devise schemes of money-getting so fraudulent and high-falootin' that they wouldn't have been allowed in the by-laws of a railroad rebate system."

"Myself, I never believed in taking any man's dollars unless I gave him something for it—something in the way of rolled gold jewelry, garden seeds, luncheon toilet, stock certificates, stove polish, or a crack on the head to show for the money. I guess I must have had New England and its ways away back and inherited some of their stanch and rugged fear of the law."

"But Andy's family tree was in different kind. I don't think he could have traced his descent any further back than a corporation."

"One summer while we was in the Middle West, working down the Ohio Valley with a line of family ailments, headache powders and roach destroyer, Andy takes one of his notions of high and actionable financing."

"I was thinking," says Andy, "of a little hunt in the great herd of the Midas Americans, commonly known as the Pittsburgh millionaires."

"In New York," I ask.

"No, sir," says Andy, "in Pittsburgh. That's their habitat. They don't like New York. They go there now and then just because it's expected of 'em."

"Well, to make a dense story more condensed, me and Andy cached our parts green and antipyrine powders and alibis in a friend's cellar, and took the trail to Pittsburgh. Andy did have any special prospectus of chicanery and violence drawn up, but he always had plenty of confidence and kept making a noise like an import duty on steel rails we won't have any trouble in meeting some of 'em socially."

"One evening Andy failed to come to the hotel for dinner. About 11 o'clock he came into my room."

"Landed," one, Jeff, says he. "Twelve millions. Oil, rolling mills, real estate and natural gas. He's a fine man; no airs about him. Made his money in the last five years. He's got professors pointing him up now in education—art and literature and haberdashery and such things."

"When I saw him he'd just won a lot of ten thousand dollars with a Steel Corporation man that there'd be four suicides in the Allegheny rolling mill today. So everybody in sight had to walk up and have drinks on him. He took a fancy to me and asked me to dinner with him. We went to a restaurant in Diamond Alley and sat on stools and had sparkling Moselle and clam chowder and apple fritters."

"Then he wanted to show me his bachelor apartment on Liberty Street. It was a pile of gold and silver and next floor above. He sold me it for $18,000 to furnish his apartment."

"He's got a fine worth of pictures in one room, and $20,000 worth of curios and antiques in another. His name's Scudder, and he's a cracking lessons on the piano and 15,000 barrels of oil a day out of his wells."

"All right," says I. "Preliminary center satisfactory. But, say, what's that? What good is the art junk to you? And the oil?"

"Now, that man," says Andy, sitting thoughtfully on the bed, "said what you would call an ordinary scunt. When he was showing me his cabinet of art curios his face lighted up like the door of a coke oven. He says that if some of his big deals go through he'll make J. P. Morgan's collection of sweatshop tapestry and August (Mc.) headwork look like the contents of an ostrich's craw thrown on a screen by a magic lantern."

"And then he showed me a little carving," went on Andy, "that anybody could see was a wonderful thing. It was something like two thousand years old, he said. It was a lotus flower with a woman's face in it carved out of a solid piece of ivory."

"Scudder looks it up in a catalogue and describes it. An Egyptian carving named Khafra made two of 'em for King Ramesses II about the year B. C. The other one can't be found. The junkshops and antique bugs have rubbed all Europe for it, but it seems to be out of stock. Scudder paid $2,000 for the one he has."

"Oh, well," says I, "this sounds like the purling of a rill to me. I thought we came here to teach the millionaires business. Instead of learning art from 'em."

"No matter," says Andy, kindly. "Maybe we will see a rift in the smoke ere long."

"All the next morning Andy was out. I didn't see him until about noon. He came to the hotel and called me into his room across the hall. He pulled a roundish bundle about as big as a goose egg out of his pocket and unwrapped it. It was an ivory carving just as he had described the millionaires to me."

"I offered him two dollars for it, and I must have looked like I wanted it, for he said it would be taking the pinnerickel out of his children's mouths to bid any conversation that did not lead up to a price of $25. I finally got it for $25."

"Jeff," goes on Andy, "this is the exact counterpart of Scudder's carving. It's absolutely a dead ringer for it. He'll pay $2,000 for it as quick as he'd take a napkin under his chin. And why shouldn't it be the genuine other one, anyhow, that the old zips whittled out?"

"Why not, indeed?" says I. "And how shall we go about compelling him to make a voluntary purchase of it?"

"I got a note of blue spectral ink on my black truck coat, traced by hair up and became Professor Pickle. I went to another hotel, registered, and sent a telegram to Scudder to come and see me at once on important art business. The elevator dumped him on me in less than an hour. He was a foggy man with a clarion voice smelling of 'connoisseur' wrappers and napkins."

"Hello, Professor," he shouts. "How's your carving?"

"I rummied my hair some more and gave him a blue glass stare."

"Sir," says I, "are you Cornelius T. Scudder, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania?"

"I am," says he, "Come out and have a drink."

"I have neither the time nor the desire," says I, "for such painful and deleterious amusement. I have come from New York," says I, "on a matter of business on a matter of art."

"I learned there that you are the owner of an Egyptian ivory carving of the time of Queen Isis, representing the head of Queen Isis in a lotus flower. There were only two of such carvings made. One has been lost for many years. I recently discovered and purchased the other in a pawnshop in an obscure museum in Vienna. I wish to purchase yours. Name your price."

"Well, the great I am, Professor,"

MUCH SMOKE IN CITY HALL; TINY "FIRE" CAUSED IT

Panic prevailed in the City Hall at noon yesterday for a period of fifteen minutes.

From numerous places about the downtown portion of the city came the telephonic communication that Oakland's picturesque City Hall was burning.

Police and fire officials rushed to the street. Gazing up to the upper regions of the imposing structure, they saw blue tendrils of smoke issuing from the windows of the jail floor. Soon the smoke thickened into ominous black columns which rolled skyward.

Then a wild scurrying began to find the seat of the fire. Firemen dashed up and down the elevators. Every nook and cranny was investigated. Smoke was everywhere but no fire could be found.

The city prison on the twelfth and thirteenth floors filled with the acrid smoke. Prisoners were in a state of panic. They conjured up visions of fire shooting up the elevator shaft and cutting off their only means of escape.

Then the "fire" was discovered. It was in the basement and was caused by the burning of a large dinner the firemen had been cooking. The smoke had ascended a ventilator shaft and poured from the upper windows.

Husband's Curses Plea for Divorce

Farms Are Getting Much-Needed Hands

Alleging that her husband frequently cursed her in the presence of friends and has otherwise treated her with cruelty, Mrs. Margaret E. Murty has filed suit for divorce from B. Thomas Murty. The couple married in Oakland October 19, 1927, and separated March 2, 1928. The complainant sets forth that the only community property is an automobile valued at $1500. Murty is employed at the Union Construction Company's shipbuilding plant, she says, and receives a salary of $250 a month, of which she asks $150 a month alimony, besides $250 for attorney's fees and $50 costs of court. There are no children.

Labor is turning with more favor toward the farm jobs and a release of the shortage of farmhands may come, if the figures at the local headquarters of the State Labor Bureau may be said to apply for a war area.

Farm service at from $2.25 to $3 a day with board has suddenly offered a strong appeal to those applying daily for positions at Tench and Franklin streets. Approximately 400 applicants appear daily and yet about 1300 unfilled positions remain permanently on the books.

A-to-Zed Summer School

High School and Grammar Grade Branches Given

A Full Term's Work in Each Subject.

The A-to-Zed Summer School meets the needs of those who wish to advance faster than the regular two term school year will permit, and of those whose work has been broken or irregular and who wish to be brought up to grade during the vacation months.

SPECIAL EIGHTH WEEKS CLASSES IN

Physics, Chemistry, Advanced Algebra, Solid Geometry, Trigonometry, English, United States History, Civics and Languages. As each of these classes covers the usual terms work in eight weeks, prospective students should not, except in cases of review, plan on enrolling in more than two at one time.

SUMMER GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Besides the regular high school curriculum, the A-to-Zed School will conduct summer classes in arithmetic, grammar and other grammar grade branches. Special review classes are provided for those who wish a thorough grounding in grammar grade work before entering high school next fall.

Teachers now employed will not continue in the profession and new ones refuse to go into it because the salaries paid them are not enough to afford them a proper living.

The increase in living costs since 1913 has been variously figured between 90 and 112 per cent. With the lower figure as a basis for estimation, it appears that a 1913 salary must be 90 per cent larger in 1929 to have its original buying power.

The increases given the teachers in that time have been so small by comparison with the advanced cost of living that now they are able to live on their salaries only by practicing the strictest economy.

And in the meantime raises have been granted workers in other occupations as follows: bricklayers, 58 per cent; painters, 78 per cent; carpenters, 99 per cent; cement finishers, 100 per cent; unskilled laborers, as high as 130 per cent, and the metal workers, as high as 250 per cent. It must be remembered also that the basic wage for all these workers was much higher than for the teachers.

But school teachers must have more than just "living wages." They must be compensated for their heavy investment in training; they must be paid for the professional character of their work; they must be given enough to allow them to maintain the standard of living required by the position they hold in the community; they must be enabled to save against old age.

If these things are not done, the exodus of teachers from the profession, which amounted to 140,000 throughout the country last year, will continue. A younger generation of teachers will refuse to train.

Blue Bird Bureau

MUCH SMOKE IN CITY HALL; TINY "FIRE" CAUSED IT

Panic prevailed in the City Hall at noon yesterday for a period of fifteen minutes.

From numerous places about the downtown portion of the city came the telephonic communication that Oakland's picturesque City Hall was burning.

Police and fire officials rushed to the street. Gazing up to the upper regions of the imposing structure, they saw blue tendrils of smoke issuing from the windows of the jail floor. Soon the smoke thickened into ominous black columns which rolled skyward.

Then a wild scurrying began to find the seat of the fire. Firemen dashed up and down the elevators. Every nook and cranny was investigated. Smoke was everywhere but no fire could be found.

The city prison on the twelfth and thirteenth floors filled with the acrid smoke. Prisoners were in a state of panic. They conjured up visions of fire shooting up the elevator shaft and cutting off their only means of escape.

Then the "fire" was discovered. It was in the basement and was caused by the burning of a large dinner the firemen had been cooking. The smoke had ascended a ventilator shaft and poured from the upper windows.

Husband's Curses Plea for Divorce

Farms Are Getting Much-Needed Hands

Alleging that her husband frequently cursed her in the presence of friends and has otherwise treated her with cruelty, Mrs. Margaret E. Murty has filed suit for divorce from B. Thomas Murty. The couple married in Oakland October 19, 1927, and separated March 2, 1928. The complainant sets forth that the only community property is an automobile valued at $1500. Murty is employed at the Union Construction Company's shipbuilding plant, she says, and receives a salary of $250 a month, of which she asks $150 a month alimony, besides $250 for attorney's fees and $50 costs of court. There are no children.

Labor is turning with more favor toward the farm jobs and a release of the shortage of farmhands may come, if the figures at the local headquarters of the State Labor Bureau may be said to apply for a war area.

Farm service at from $2.25 to $3 a day with board has suddenly offered a strong appeal to those applying daily for positions at Tench and Franklin streets. Approximately 400 applicants appear daily and yet about 1300 unfilled positions remain permanently on the books.

A-to-Zed Summer School

High School and Grammar Grade Branches Given

A Full Term's Work in Each Subject.

The A-to-Zed Summer School meets the needs of those who wish to advance faster than the regular two term school year will permit, and of those whose work has been broken or irregular and who wish to be brought up to grade during the vacation months.

SPECIAL EIGHTH WEEKS CLASSES IN

Physics, Chemistry, Advanced Algebra, Solid Geometry, Trigonometry, English, United States History, Civics and Languages. As each of these classes covers the usual terms work in eight weeks, prospective students should not, except in cases of review, plan on enrolling in more than two at one time.

SUMMER GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Besides the regular high school curriculum, the A-to-Zed School will conduct summer classes in arithmetic, grammar and other grammar grade branches. Special review classes are provided for those who wish a thorough grounding in grammar grade work before entering high school next fall.

Teachers now employed will not continue in the profession and new ones refuse to go into it because the salaries paid them are not enough to afford them a proper living.

The increase in living costs since 1913 has been variously figured between 90 and 112 per cent. With the lower figure as a basis for estimation, it appears that a 1913 salary must be 90 per cent larger in 1929 to have its original buying power.

The increases given the teachers in that time have been so small by comparison with the advanced cost of living that now they are able to live on their salaries only by practicing the strictest economy.

And in the meantime raises have been granted workers in other occupations as follows: bricklayers, 58 per cent; painters, 78 per cent; carpenters, 99 per cent; cement finishers, 100 per cent; unskilled laborers, as high as 130 per cent, and the metal workers, as high as 250 per cent. It must be remembered also that the basic wage for all these workers was much higher than for the teachers.

But school teachers must have more than just "living wages." They must be compensated for their heavy investment in training; they must be paid for the professional character of their work; they must be given enough to allow them to maintain the standard of living required by the position they hold in the community; they must be enabled to save against old age.

If these things are not done, the exodus of teachers from the profession, which amounted to 140,000 throughout the country last year, will continue. A younger generation of teachers will refuse to train.
